Attached for your information is an advance copy of an HN on the subject of discontinued service retirements. You will note from Mr. Fisher's comment on the accompanying routing sheet that the discontinued service retirement option will not be available after it becomes evident that the CS will reach its reduced FY 1973 ceiling. Under the circumstances, it would appear advisable for anyone contemplating discontinued service retirement in FY 1973 to make his decision and formal application without undue delay.

A book dispatch is in process for the information of D careerists stationed overseas.

If any members of your component wish to discuss discontinued service retirement and their eligibility for it, CSPS/Retirement Branch (extension ☐) will be happy to assist them.

I believe the language in [redacted] is fine. The second sentence in paragraph 2 is key. We cannot predict with certainty when a surplus of personnel in the CS will cease to exist and this is a figure that must be projected to the end of the year based on known losses. If or when you can anticipate being at or below ceiling, the offer of discontinued service retirement to all members of the CS must be withdrawn.
